Principal's Pad – Our students have continued to improve on their behavior and procedures around school. Our 4th graders have the biggest learning curve but I'm proud of their effort and learning with a new school and a principal who is very picky about their behavior! Our 4th and 5th graders began their moving to different classes for math and reading interventions/ extensions and have done really well. The grouping of our students according to their learning needs has been very positive and I've had a lot of complimentary comments from both staff and students. Next week our 6th graders will begin the interventions.

I hope you all are planning on coming to our Curriculum Night/ Open House next Tuesday, the 23rd at 6:00 PM. Please do your best to be here by 6:00 as your child's teacher will be talking about expectations, our use of assessment data, our groupings for interventions among other things from 6:00 until 6:30. Then at 6:30, it will be less formal and feel free to roam around our school and visit with our staff. Also, we'll have a table in the foyer that our Title One staff and I will be available to answer questions and visit with you.

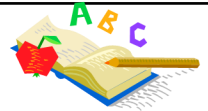

We've been telling our students who are picked up at the end of the day to exit down the fourth grade hall and meet their rides on Michigan Ave. If you pick your child up on Michigan Ave. after school, please be extra careful driving as it can be a bit congested and our kids getting picked up aren't always as safe as we'd like them to be. Mr. Hallmark and Mrs. Stinson are out there to help, but if all of us are looking out for our students, the safer they will be. Thank you.

Have a great weekend.

Principal
